

WILSON RE-ELECTED WITHOUT VOTE OF THREE STATES STILL IN THE DOUBTFUL COLUMN

When California Swung Definitely into the Democratic Column, It Gave Him 269 Votes, or Three More Than Were Necessary for a Majority in the Electoral College; and There Was Almost a Certainty of Three More from New Mexico

HUGHES STILL LEADS IN MINNESOTA AND HE IS ALSO SURE OF W. VIRGINIA

New Hampshire's Position Will Not Be Known Until the Official Count Is Completed, Both Sides Still Claiming the State—Without Counting the Votes of Three Doubtful States, the Result Stands: Wilson 269, Hughes 243

New York, Nov. 10.—Woodrow Wilson was elected president of the United States when California swung definitely into the Democratic column early to-day. The only states where the result remained in question to-day were Minnesota, New Hampshire and New Mexico, with a total of 19 electoral votes.

Unless there is a decided overturn in the districts missing, Wilson will carry New Mexico. Hughes is leading in Minnesota. The result will not be known in New Hampshire until the official count is completed. West Virginia, which was classed as doubtful until last night, has gone definitely for Hughes.

N. H. VOTE VERY MUCH COMPLICATED; WILSON SEEMS TO LEAD

Allowing 125 Votes in Keene Second Ward to Wilson and Basing Eleven Precincts in Press Returns Gives Wilson 54 Plurality.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 10.—Certified returns from 283 precincts out of 294 in New Hampshire give Hughes 42,043 and Wilson 42,284. Wilson's lead is 239. These figures, according to Secretary of State Bean, include the returns of the clerk of ward two in Keene, who certified that the Wilson electors received no votes although the press returns gave 125.

The press returns from the eleven precincts unaccounted for in the certified figures give Hughes 1670 and Wilson 1360. The missing precincts are ward three in Laconia, Hopkinton, Litchfield, ward two in Dover, Wentworth location at Kinson, Rochester, Exeter, Hampstead, Rye and Boscaawen.

HUGHES WITHHOLDS CONGRATULATIONS

His Secretary Declared To-day that the Republican Candidate Will Wait Before Felicitating President Wilson.

New York, Nov. 10.—Lawrence Greene, secretary to Charles E. Hughes, said to-day in response to questions by newspapermen that Hughes would not to-day send congratulations to President Wilson. "Not yet," said Mr. Greene.

REPUBLICANS HOLD ELECTION CONFERENCE

To Determine What Action to Take on Proposal to Ask Recount in the Close States.

New York, Nov. 10.—A conference of Republican campaign managers has been called for noon to-day to consider the election situation and to decide definitely what action shall be taken in respect to a recount of the vote in close states. This was announced by George W. Perkins, who added: "Nothing is definitely settled yet."

WILSON GETS WORDS OF SUCCESS BY RADIO

Secretary Tumulty Wired Notification as Soon as Associated Press Announced the Result.

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 10.—Secretary Tumulty wired formal notification to the president of his re-election. When it came a shout of joy went up inside the executive offices and Secretary Tumulty, who had told the president he would not congratulate him until the definite news was known, sent a wireless message to the Mayflower. It was as follows:

"I am here surrounded by the loyal Democrats of old Monmouth and beg leave to send you my greeting and congratulations. The cause you have so nobly represented has at last triumphed, and we greet you. Our hearts, our thoughts and our affections go to you." Secretary Tumulty waited for the flash from the Associated Press that President Wilson had carried California. When it came a shout of joy went up inside the executive offices and Secretary Tumulty, who had told the president he would not congratulate him until the definite news was known, sent a wireless message to the Mayflower giving his congratulations.

TALK OF THE TOWN

O. J. L. Matthews, who went to Boston a week ago to consult specialists at the Massachusetts General hospital, has returned to the Barre City hospital for further treatment.

Albert Hurry of Detroit, Mich., arrived in the city Wednesday evening and will visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hurry of Washington street for several days.

John Dyer, who has been employed at the Palace garage during the past week, has completed his duties there and will commence as a draftsman in the drafting department at the Lane Manufacturing Co., in Montpelier to-morrow morning.

Van Carpenter of East Brookfield visited friends in the city yesterday while on his way to Winooski to visit his wife, who underwent a severe operation at the Fanny Allen hospital a few weeks ago. Mr. Carpenter will remain at the hospital for several days until there is some decided change in her condition.

Marion H. Clarke of New York, impersonator, will present "Daddy Long Legs" at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, Nov. 30. Kindly bear this date in mind. Just the entertainment you need to finish up a happy Thanksgiving day. Miss Clarke needs no introduction to a Barre audience. She will be remembered as the impersonator who presented "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" a few years ago and was so much enjoyed by all who heard her—adv.

D. A. Perry returned to Barre last night after conducting the auction sale of stock and farm property at the Pembroke place in Middlesex yesterday. There was a large crowd in attendance and several cattle buyers from different sections of the state were among the bidders. The stock all brought very good prices, 19 cows being knocked down at $60 apiece and one pair of oxen sold for $212. The hay and other articles put up at the sale all brought good auction prices.

Plans are going forward for the annual meeting of Sunday temple, No. 140, D. O. K. K., which is to be held in Barre, the home of the temple, around Dec. 15, although a definite date has not been fixed. Contrary to tentative plans discussed a short time ago, it is improbable that a ceremonial will be held at that time, as the time will be pretty well taken up with business matters. It is proposed, however, to hold a ceremonial at a strategic point somewhere in the temple confines in January or February.

The ladies of the Episcopal church held their dance at Howland hall last evening with about 50 couples attending the evening's entertainment. The dance was considered by the ladies to have been one of the most successful ever held under the auspices of the women of that church. The dancing commenced at 8 o'clock and continued until 12 o'clock, with Carroll's orchestra in attendance. Punch was served by the Misses Gladys and Mae Dale in a booth in one corner of the hall, the punch being proving to be a great attraction to the dancers throughout the evening.

$4,500 FARM FIRE NEAR MORRISVILLE

Barn on the Delano Dairy Farm South of Village Destroyed—All Live-Stock Taken Out Except Two Calves.

Morrisville, Nov. 10.—Fire destroyed a large barn on the Delano dairy farm, a mile and a half south of this village, this forenoon between the hours of 8 and 10, causing a loss of $4,500, on which there was an insurance of $1,500. The loss includes $2,500 in produce. All the stock except two calves were taken out. The cause of the fire is not known.

Mr. Dodge runs a milk route here and the son had just started out on the route, while the hired man was at work in the field and Mr. Dodge himself was employed about the farm. Neighbors informed them of the fire. The village fire department was called, but on account of the scarcity of water and the fact that the flames had made great headway all they could do was to save the house.

SAW DIM FORM MOVING.

He Shot and Then Learned He Had Wounded His Companion.

Ashland, N. H., Nov. 10.—Lloyd Perkins is in a critical condition as the result of being accidentally shot while hunting by moonlight late Wednesday night.

Mr. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins of Holderness, was hunting with Mark Martin, by moonlight, and during the evening they separated.

According to the story, Martin mistook the dim moving form of Perkins for game and fired three charges of buckshot.

Perkins was hit three times. One bullet penetrated a lung and two inflicted wounds in his shoulder.

As soon as Martin realized what he had done he did everything possible to bring assistance and the wounded man was soon under the care of a physician.

Everything possible is being done for Perkins, but his condition is serious.

CARELESS HUNTERS BEGIN.

One of the Species Shot a Jericho Lamb Through the Nose.

Jericho, Nov. 10.—J. H. Safford found one of his lambs shot through the nose and so badly injured that the animal had to be killed. It is supposed the shot was fired by some careless hunter.

JONES—WRIGHT.

Barre Young Woman the Bride of Philadelphia Man.

A very quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. Edgar Crossland, pastor of the Presbyterian church, when Joan G. Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright of this city, was united in marriage to William H. Jones of Philadelphia. The bride is a graduate from Spaulding high school in the academic class of 1913 and the groom is a prosperous young man in Philadelphia. The couple will be at home at 2513 North 28th street, Philadelphia, after Nov. 15. No cards.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

Thomas Brady, Injured at Pirie Quarry, Has Severe Injuries.

Reports from the City hospital concerning the condition of Thomas Brady of Granville, who sustained severe injuries while working at the J. K. Pirie quarry yesterday, indicate that the man is in a critical state. He was hurried to the hospital in Whitcomb's motor ambulance during the noon hour yesterday, after employees at the Pirie quarry had picked him up on the bottom of a pit. Mr. Brady states that Brady, who was acting as foreman during the absence of the regular foreman, was standing near the brink of the quarry when a chain struck him in the head. The blow felled the foreman and he toppled over into the quarry pit, a distance variously estimated to be 25 and 30 feet. Afterward it was stated that the chain, which was being used to maintain a "loose hitch" on a stone under the derrick boom, broke as the block of granite swung near Brady.

He was unconscious when the other men reached his side and Dr. G. L. T. Hayes, who was called, advised his immediate removal to the hospital. Later, Dr. J. W. Stewart was also called on the case. It is feared that Brady sustained a bad spinal injury. He received a hard blow on the head and there was a multiplicity of abrasions elsewhere. Brady is around 30 years old and married. He is very well known in Granville.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

Attended Sixth Masonic District Meeting in Barre.

Seven Washington county lodges, comprising the sixth Masonic district, met in Barre yesterday for their annual meeting. The presence of several grand lodge officers heightened interest in the ceremonial work that featured the afternoon and evening sessions, the degree being conferred in two sections by Green Mountain lodge of Cabot and Winooski lodge of Waterbury. More than 150 Masons were present, every lodge in the district was well represented and the attendance from outside the city was unusually large. At 6 o'clock the women of Ruth chapter, No. 33, O. E. S., served a supper in the banquet hall adjoining the lodge rooms in the Blanchard building and the service was highly appreciated by visiting and entertaining Masons alike.

Grand lodge officers who were present to review the work are: Henry H. Ross of Burlington, grand master; D. A. Elliott of White River Junction, deputy grand master; E. L. Wells of Lyndonville, the grand senior warden, and L. Burton Jones of Island Pond, the grand lecturer. At 3 o'clock the first section of the Fellowship degree was conferred by Green Mountain lodge, E. T. Paquin, W. M., the work being reviewed by Grand Lecturer Jones. Until 7:30 the lodge was formally closed and with the resumption of the meeting the officers were duly received by Granite lodge, which had opened the afternoon session with Frank K. Board as worthy master. The second section of the degree was conferred by Winooski lodge with Dr. H. H. Fullerton as worthy master. Lectures of the degrees were given by brothers of Granite lodge and Grand Lecturer Jones reviewed the ceremonial work. Grand Master Ross then delivered an interesting address, whereupon the lodge was closed in form by Granite lodge.

The following lodges were represented: DeWitt Clinton, No. 15, of Northfield; C. L. Morse, W. M.; Augusta, No. 22, of Montpelier; Henry Holt, W. M.; Granite, No. 35, of Barre; F. K. Beard, W. M.; Winooski, No. 49, of Waterbury; H. H. Fullerton, W. M.; Green Mountain, No. 68, E. H. Paquin, W. M.; Mad River, No. 77, of Waitsfield; Daniel R. Bisbee, W. M.; Wyoming, No. 80, North Montpelier; Chester W. Bugbee, W. M.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Misses Jessie and Elsie Morgan of Ayers street visited friends in Burlington to-day.

Joseph D. Walker, a St. Johnsbury monument retailer, was a business visitor in the city yesterday and to-day.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the Meadow Brook Club's banquet will be held in City Hall, No. 22, at 7:30 o'clock. It has been decided to hold the annual banquet and dance on the eve of Thanksgiving day, Nov. 29. The affair will be held in the clan hall.

Members of the farce, "A Jack for Every Jill," played at the Clan Gordon fair recently, were carried to Granville Wednesday night, where they played before a large and appreciative audience at the Foresters' fair. After the play a dance, with the Montpelier Military band orchestra furnishing music, was given. All reported an excellent time.
